The secrets of the narco-tunnel that connects Spain with Morocco

(Los secretos del narcotúnel que une España con Marruecos)

The article details the narco-tunnel that connected Ceuta with Morocco for two years, used for trafficking at least five tons of hashish. The report's infographic is fundamental and highly interactive: based on police photos and the summary, the reader can virtually “walk through” the subterranean gallery using a simple horizontal scroll.

Colpisa Agency's reports are published in the regional newspapers of the Vocento group:
